

Bible Study Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, this Bible study topic, and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader, or used by a Bible study group leader, or church pastor. The questions should be answered or discussed after reading the lesson. In addition, the questions are designed to enhance learning via the determination of personal opinions and discovering how the lesson content relates to our personal lives. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① Has this lesson changed any aspect of your understanding of baptism? If yes, explain.
- ① What is the most important thing you learned about baptism?
- ① How would you explain the spiritual relevance of immersion under water?
- ① How would you explain the spiritual relevance of rising out of the water?
- ① The intent of the baptism of Jesus was to fulfill righteousness. Different fulfillment of righteousness were listed in the lesson. Which do you think is most important to you?
- ① The lesson states baptism is a public demonstration of the believer's faith and desires of their heart. Do you think this statement is accurate, or can it be improved by modifying the words?
- ① The lesson states the baptized should have reached a degree of spiritual maturity and enlightenment that is evidenced by their ability to articulate they are sinful and are forgiven by their faith in Jesus. Why is this important?
- ① The lesson concludes by stating that it is beneficial for baptisms to have order and structure. However, our worship and obedience should joyfully flow from our heart, and not be constrained by the consequences of rituals. Do you agree or disagree?
- ① How would you explain the relevance and importance of baptism to someone who has recently accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord?