

Bible Study

Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, this Bible study topic, and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader, or used by a Bible study group leader, or church pastor. The questions should be answered or discussed after reading the lesson. In addition, the questions are designed to enhance learning via the determination of personal opinions and discovering how the lesson content relates to our personal lives. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① The lesson states all persons have a sinful nature? Can you identify at least 3 examples?
- ① The lesson states our sinful nature rebels against God? Can you identify a personal example?
- ① The lesson states our sinful nature separates us from God? Can you identify a personal example?
- ① Do you think it is important for one to despise their sin before they turn to Jesus? Explain.
- ① The lesson states any attempt to overcome our sinful nature by our own efforts is in vain. The lesson also states changes must occur within the spiritual depths of our heart and soul (where the God desired transformation changes must occur). Do you agree or disagree? Explain.
- ① In the lesson summary section a table lists multiple reasons why Christianity is unique from other religions. Which 3 do you think is most important?
- ① Some people believe Jesus was a prophet, a good teacher, or a godly man. Do the declarative words spoken by Jesus in John 14:6 refute these perceptions? "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." If yes, how?
- ① What is the spiritual meaning of John 8:32? "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."
- ① The title graphic contains multiple images that correlate to the lesson's content.
  - Can you identify 3 or more.
  - How would you explain the title graphic to someone who does not know Jesus Christ?

- ① What is the most important thing you learned from this lesson?