Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, this Bible study topic, and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader, or used by a Bible study group leader, or church pastor. The questions should be answered or discussed after reading the lesson. In addition, the questions are designed to enhance learning via the determination of personal opinions and discovering how the lesson content relates to our personal lives. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① Take a few moments and think about all of the questions you have ever considered in life. How does the topic of this lesson compare in importance?
- ① The lesson states we are not a body with a soul, but rather, we are a soul who lives in a body.
  - Is there a difference between these two perceptions?
  - Is one perception more important than the other? Why?
  - Does it change your perception towards yourself and other persons?
- ① Jesus declared, “A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.” Mat. 12:35; Luke 6:45
  - Explain the relevance of these words based upon the perception that we are a soul who lives in a body.
  - How can words spoken by someone provide insight into the status and condition of a person’s soul?
- ① The lesson states that we experience conflicts between our body and soul. Can you think of examples?
- ① Why do you think multiple scriptures in the Bible use the term “sleep” to refer to someone who has died?
- ① The lesson describes two resurrections. Identify 3 differences.
- ① Based upon the content of this lesson, what key points would you speak to someone who is terminally ill and:
  - Does not know Jesus?
  - Is born-again?
- ① Can you think of an earthly correlation that could be used to describe the intent and purpose of the lake of fire?
- ① What is the most important thing you learned from this lesson?
