

Bible Study

Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, Bible study topic and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader; or used by a Bible study group leader or church pastor. The following questions should be answered or discussed after reading “Free Will.”

The following questions are designed to enhance learning via the identification of opinions and/or discovering how the lesson content illuminates our personal lives. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① Why did God design us with a free will?
- ① Can you identify one thing you did in the past 24 hours that involved your free will? If yes, explain.
- ① Can you identify one decision you have made in the past that involved a mental comparison between the benefits and associated costs? If yes, explain.
- ① Is it possible for someone to be in prison, living under extreme oppressive conditions, and exercise their free will?
 - If yes, explain.
 - Are you able to provide biblical examples?
- ① Consider the various gods people worship.
 - Which ones are more interested in the desires of the heart—as opposed to what we do?
 - Which ones lived and willingly died (via free will) as a means to be forgiven for our sins?