

Bible Study Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, this Bible study topic and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader; or used by a Bible study group leader or church pastor. The following questions should be answered or discussed after reading “It’s Not About Me.”

The following questions are designed to enhance learning via the identification of opinions and/or discovering how the lesson content illuminates our personal lives. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① Do you know a self-centered person?
- ② If yes, what have they done or said that caused you to determine they are self-centered?
- ③ Have there been any consequences? For example:
 - Do you find them manipulative?
 - Do you like being around this person?
- ④ Are you able to identify self-centered characteristics in what you do and say?
- ⑤ Did any content from the lesson speak to your heart? If yes, what spoke the loudest?
- ⑥ What can you do differently in the future? Once identified, ask yourself is this for me or God?
