

Bible Study Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, this Bible study topic and ourselves. The questions may be answered by each reader, or used by a Bible study group leader or church pastor. The following questions should be answered or discussed after reading “Memories.”

The following questions are designed to enhance learning via personal reflection and opinions. As such, no answers are provided.

Questions

- ① Jesus spoke of the rich man and Lazarus in Luke 16:19-28. Do you think the rich man experienced remorse (regret, sorrow, guilt)? Explain.
- ① Will those who spend eternity in the lake of fire experience remorse for what they did and did not do?
 - Explain why they may or may not have remorse for what they did.
 - Explain why they may or may not have remorse for what they did not do (and should have done).
- ① Will those who enter into Heaven experience remorse for what they did and did not do?
 - Explain why they may or may not have remorse for what they did.
 - Explain why they may or may not have remorse for what they did not do (and should have done).
- ① For those who are unable to recall memory due to dementia, do you think their memory is still intact? Explain.
- ① Based upon the content of this lesson, can you identify one thing regarding our memory you never considered or is new to you?