

Bible Study Thought-Provoking Questions

The purpose of the questions is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the Bible, Bible study topic, and possible future events. The questions may be answered by each reader; or used by a Bible study group leader or church pastor. The following questions should be answered or discussed after reading “The Covenant.”

Each question is based upon personal opinions. As such, no answers are provided.

- ① What type of events may occur in/around Israel before the covenant is announced?
- ① Do you think the implementation of the covenant will be known globally? If yes, why and how?
- ① How will the Israelites:
  - Respond to the covenant?
  - Perceive the beast?
- ① Will the beast seek recognition for the covenant?
- ① Do you think some will attempt to warn the Israelites (and the world) about the biblically-defined truth and future consequences of the covenant? If yes:
  - When the covenant is introduced:
    - How will Israelites respond to the warnings?
    - How will the rest of the world respond to the warnings?
    - How will those who warn be depicted by those who are in darkness?
  - 3 ½ years after the covenant is confirmed, and as the warnings are fulfilled:
    - How will the Israelites respond?
    - How will the rest of the world respond?
- ① Is it important to keep abreast of events that are occurring in Israel? Explain.
